

Short Report:

Training of Vocational Teachers of Engineering and Technology area in Developing Teaching Skills and Assessment Method for Puducherry, Odisha and Daman & Diu from 24-28 Sept., 2018 at PSSCIVE, Bhopal, M.P. India

PSSCIVE, Bhopal organized “Training of Vocational Teachers of Engineering and Technology area in Developing Teaching Skills and Assessment Method” from 24-28 September 2018 at PSSCIVE, Bhopal. Teacher from West Bengal and Puducherry participated in this programme. Teacher of various engineering vocational trade from Automobile, Plumber, Construction, Electrical and Construction participated in the programme. About 32 participants participated in this programme. Programme was inaugurated by Joint Director, Prof. R.P.Khambayat. Prof. Saurabh Prakash, Programme Coordinator of this programme welcomed all the participants and informed about the aim and objectives of this programme. After inauguration, both state presented status of NSQF in their state. As per programme schedule, Presentation of Status by States was made by state representative. Important topic such Issue related to pedagogy, teaching technique, session plan, evaluation Techniques in Class room, assessment plan, Development of MCQ, Development of question, skill testing, preparation of various types of testing tools, presentation and discussion on testing tools by participants, rubric Based assessment and preparation of rubric as well presentation and discussion on rubrics by participants were made. A local visit to the other participant was also arranged. During valedictory Dr. Deepak Shuddalwar Head, Engineering and Technology distributed certificates to participants.

